

Constitution Day December 2019

Part III and article 12 to 35 of the constitution of India guarantees certain basic rights to the citizens of India known as the fundamental rights – Rights to Equality, Right to freedom, Right against exploitation, right to Freedom of Religion, Cultural and Educational right and Right to Constitutional Remedies.

As a citizen of India along with these Fundamental rights we have to abide by and fulfil some Fundamental duties i.e. To abide by the Constitution and respect the national Flag, National Anthem. To uphold and protect the unity, sovereignty and integrity of India. To promote harmony spirit of Common brotherhood amongst all people of India.

The students were made aware of these Fundamental duties of every individual as a citizen of India.

Constitution Day

26th November, 2019

Constitution Day also known as Samvidhan Divas is celebrated in India on 26th November every year to commemorate the adoption of The Constitution of India. On this special day, special assembly was presented by the students of Class 5 A. The assembly began with a morning prayer followed by a thought and a short and motivational poem on 'Hardwork and Success'.

The Senior Mistress, Ms Geetika Bahl, read out the preamble of the Indian Constitution and briefed the children about the same. The assembly concluded with the national anthem.
