In compliance with the CBSE's circular regarding observance of Voluntary Khadi Wearing Day in schools, Delhi Public School Vasant Kunj conducted various activities.

In the Annual Day and Scholar Badge Ceremony for Classes VI to VIII, the students wore smart Khadi kurtas and melodiously sang away Gandhiji's popular bhajan, 'Vaishno Jann Toh'.

In yet another ceremony, the orchestra of the school wore the Khadi dress and serenaded the audience with their soulful performance. This was done to encourage Khadi wearing amongst the youth.

In the Junior School too, the young students made a style statement by wearing Khadi during their Annual function and different assemblies. They were educated about the role of Gandhiji's Khadi in uniting India during the freedom struggle.

The objective of all these activities was to stress the importance of Khadi in our lives. Celebrating 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, these cultural activities highlighted the use of Khadi in our sartorial choices. During these events and activities, the students were educated about few important facts about Khadi and Khadi wearing, such as Khadi is a handloom product- hand-woven and hand-spun. Khadi is the pride of India.
